The Romance of Ancient Civilizations Lives On

Known to the ancient Romans as "the Fortunate Islands," Tenerife and the Canary Islands have been coveted by conquering countries and marauding pirates for more than a millennium.

These islands have a proud history rich with lore and legend. The conquistadors, the Flemish, the French, and the English, all have left their indelible mark on the land, the architecture, the cuisine and the culture. Even the ancient Greeks believed this to be the Elysian Fields as told by Homer.

Tenerife can be as vibrant as a flamenco dance or it can simmer as slowly as the thoughtful melding of rice in paella.

Here you will find the very best of Spanish character: people that are huge-hearted and passionate.

PLAZA ABAMA

Plaza Abama will be the New Heart of Abama Resort

Plaza Abama is where friends and family gather to the joyous laughter of generations and new memories in the making. As the early morning light crosses the Plaza, a workout in the fitness centre is rewarded with freshly roasted coffee and baked croissants.

Afternoon's blue-green sky beckons families to gather around the pool or explore the artisanal market for the perfect pairing of wine and tapas.

Evening's rays of indigo and copper are the curtain that opens to a tropical night sky under which to enjoy a thousand pleasures.

The Epicentre of Stylish Living

If Plaza Abama is the new heart of the resort, then Plaza Abama apartments are its soul. Rare and remarkable, these very limited apartments will be uncompromising in their open layouts.

Designed with an air of cozy sophistication, floorplans feature flow-through living, kitchen and dining areas to create the perfect social setting for gathering with friends before venturing downstairs to the Plaza.

The aesthetics of mid-century modern design focuses on what matters most: endless views.

A refined teak and white palette and an abundance of natural materials come together to complement your home's striking architectural statement.

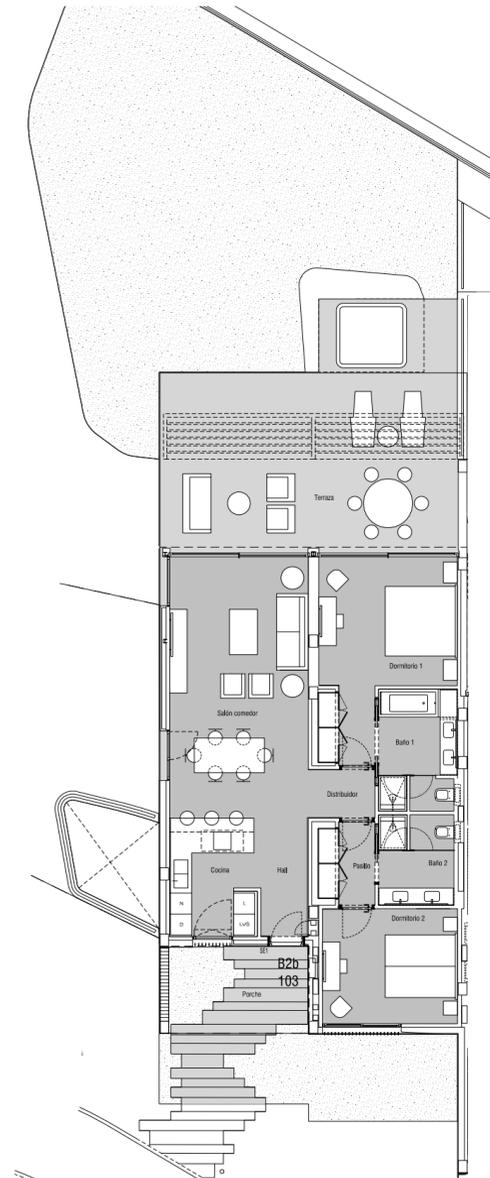

Oversized and retractable glass walls let the sunshine flood in.

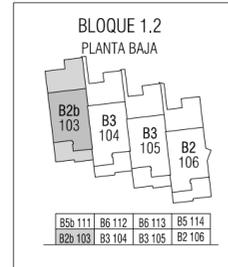

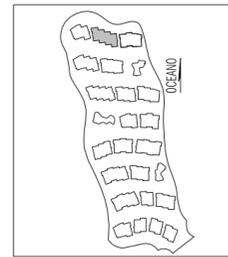

Endless Views Are The Ultimate Luxury

Sumptuous comfort. Unsurpassed luxury. And pristine uninterrupted views. Without exception, each residence of Las Arcadias will enjoy a premier position over multiple levels of the rising terrain to fully embrace the picturesque fairways of the Dave Thomas Golf Course, the blue ocean and the marvelous La Gomera island in the distance.

Las Arcadias also boasts multiple resort-style pools and convenient proximity to Plaza Abama's fitness centre and social gathering spaces.
